[From the Hillsboro Recorder.]

THREE DEAD INDIANS.

THE FRESHET ON NEW HOPE—EIGHTEEN INDIAN GRAVES DISCOVERED.

New Hope is a little branch country folks would call a river. It gurgles and winds its way within five miles of Chapel Hill and ten miles of Hillsborough. The little stream has been on a big spree, had a big freshet, and played the deuce with the crops and the bridges, and beside has unearthed a bend of that country on which was once established an Indian town. After the water had fallen and gone into its banks there were discovered eighteen Indian graves all laid out in regular platties three feet apart one way and five feet the other. Three of these graves were opened.

AND THREE DEAD INDIANS

were found sitting in their skeletons. Their knees drawn up to the stomach and their heads facing the east. They wore beads around the neck and shoulders that were kept in the soil perfect and are now in our charge to show to any one that desires to see. These Indians were wrapped in a matting made out of flag and platted together, a piece of which was found preserved in one of their graves and is now to be seen in our possession. There were six or seven different kinds of beads around their necks—some blue glass and others out of soapstone or lime stone. There were also two pieces of potter were with unexplainable hieroglyphics carved on them found in the graves, two pieces of small copper pipe, and another piece of small pipe made exactly in the shape and likeness of a little bugle. The skulls were the thickest for human beings that you ever saw and the bones were exceedingly large.

TRADITION.

John Patterson, the grandfather of Maj. W. N. Patterson of this county, came into possession of this bend of creek land in the year 1751. Indians were there then; and there was but one white man there named Baker who lived in a little bend of the creek. Baker's land was the only land cut down and cleared up and to this day that bend is known as "Baker's Corner." There is still the hollow rock near Mann Patterson's old mill which extends a mile down the creek bank and there is a walkway underneath the rock. Pigeon holes are cut all about in this rock which tradition says the Indians used to hide their tobacco and sugar and coffee in. A traveler named Lawson speaks of this hollow rock in a history of his travels through that section nearly a century ago. He says it was a "one eyed tribe" of Indians who inhabited there; that he was detained there three days and in his exploings of the place an Indian guide carried him to this rock and as soon as they came in sight of the rock the Indian ran to it and spit on it for what reason is unknown.

Not more than fifty steps opposite where these graves were found is a hanging rock that juts two yards over the creek and under it is a hole of water very deep. Maj. Patterson says that when he was a boy the old negroes said that the Indians used to cut somersaults from the hanging rock into the hole below—but, said the Major, we boys were always afraid to take the leap—it was too high. Major Patterson has kindly left in our charge all the relics we have mentioned where they can be examined by any who are curious.

THE BURIED TREASURE AND ARCHIVES OF CONFEDERACY.—The Theta Delta Chi fraternity, which met at the Astor House, New York, in February last, listened to an oration by Wm. L. Stone, who, in the course of some interesting reminiscences of the rebellion spoke of David Tilghman as the officer selected by the Confederate Government to take charge of its treasure and archives.

On the morning of Mr. Davis's capture, says Mr. Stone, Tilghman waited upon him at his bedside and said: Mr. Davis, by this map you may see that the enemy are here, such and such is the situation of the roads. If you come with me you will be able to leave the country in safety. If you do not, you will be captured in five hours. To Mr. Davis replying curtly, that he knew his own business best, Tilghman continued: Very well, sir; I have been entrusted with the treasure and archives, and propose to secure them, even at the peril of the loss of your favor and of my life. I shall start at once by the route I have marked out."

The result is well known. In less than five hours Mr. Davis was a prisoner, but the archives were safe.—When, a few weeks after, in the recesses of the forest, Tilghman learned that all was lost, he alone, and with his own hands, buried the treasure and archives; and unless, during the four days that elapsed between parting with me and his untoward death, he revealed the spot, the secret as to the whereabouts of the archives is forever buried; and as long as they shall be kept from the pen of man so long shall the story be a monument to our brother's unswerving fidelity. This is the true history of the archives of the Southern Confederacy, although rumors are from time to time set afloat of their being now in the vaults of this bank and now of that.

The fashionable shoe for ladies is made seven inches high, with an inch and a half heel, a Spanish instep, arched sole, a movable heel of gilt or silver, with an India rubber tip to deaden the sound; and they cost from $8 to $20 a pair.

In the bull fighting days, a blacksmith, who was rearing a bull pup, induced his old father to go on his all-fours and imitate the bull. The canine pupil pinned the old man by the nose. The son, disregarding the paternal roaring, exclaimed, "Hold him, Growler boy, hold him! bear it, feyther, bear it! it'll be the making of the pup.

Mark Twain thinks that soda water is not reliable for a steady drink. It is too gassy. The next morning after drinking thirty-eight bottles he found himself full of gas, and as tight as a balloon. He hadn't an article of clothing he could wear, except an umbrella.

The fly has its uses. He serves to keep bald headed sinners awake at church on a warm day, so that their unregenerated hearts may be touched by the preached word.

CONSERTATIVE CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS.

FOR THE SHORT TERM.

HON. R. B. GILLIAM,
OF GRANVILLE.

FOR THE LONG TERM.

HON. S. H. ROGERS,
OF WAKE.

"WHY IS THAT NAME ON THE DOCKET?"

Thus queried Chief Justice Pearson of the Clerk of the Supreme Court, on seeing the name of Hon. Asa Biggs upon the docket.

The Clerk reminded His Honor that the "Rule" in regard to the protesting lawyers had been discharged.

"Yes, yes!" replied the Judge with a shrug of the shoulders.

It was very evident that, in the language employed on the occasion of discharging the "Rule" in "the matter of B. F. Moore," the Chief Justice has not yet forgiven; he has only "excused."

It is positively distressing to witness the apparent determination on the part of the Judiciary, to continue the unfortunate struggle so unnecessarily begun, between the Bench and the Bar, and for to Bench to give uncalled for exhibitions of political partisan rancor.

The Chief Justice, it seems, is not content with having driven Mr. Biggs from the State; he forgets that, with the discharge of the "Rule" the Court should have discharged its resentment also. This inquiry of the Clerk by the Chief Justice, don't look like "universal amnesty," but has the appearance of "proscription for opinion sake."

While there are some things in which the Chief Justice is not sufficiently to giving, as in the case of the protesting Lawyers, there are others in which he shows too much of this noble virtue. He was very forgiving towards the Governor for rescuing a prisoner ordered to jail by the Court. Yes, rescuing him with curses and blasphemy in the very presence of the Chief Justice. And he was also too forgiving toward Henderson Adams for his open defiance of the orders and authority of the Court.

He was also very forgiving toward that old carpet bag interloper, Pilgrim Ashley from Buzzard's Bay, when he defied the Court, the Legislature and the Statutes of the State in his insolent contest in regard to the tenancy of the Supreme Court room.

But he is very slow in forgiving Mr. Biggs—too slow in burying the hatchet toward one of his co-workers for "Southern Independence." It may not be generally known, but it is nevertheless a fact, that the Chief Justice, on one occasion, went so far as to say, that the government should make an example, and confiscate the property, of one of the most inoffensive old

We really thought we had made a truce with the Court and most of the Judges; but, if they are not yet satisfied, and will continue to throw down the gauntlet, by recalling and continuing former strifes, we shall take it up.

Tourgee's taking his seat on the platform at the late Radical Convention—a high judicial officer thus mixing in a political meeting—when Phillips was conducted into the presence of John Ragland, Cuffey Mayo, and the Convention, by Windy Billy Henderson, Galloway and Andy Jackson Jones, was an overture to us to denounce him for it, but thus far we have disappointed him.

Judge Reade, under the banner of Sam Barnett, has recently entered the lists in defense of Greasy Sam, Tourgee and Jay-Bird Jones. It may be very proper for one Judge to defend another—it may be in accordance with fraternal courtesy, for Judge Reade to defend Judge Watts, even in the matter of the $5,000 Railroad bonds, about which the public has been made acquainted. It is not the fact, but the manner of the defense, that is objectionable. Judge Reade ought not to defend his brother Watts by assailing the Bar.

We are aware that the Standard has denied that Judge Reade was the author of the Roxboro' letter, defending Watts and assailing the Bar. When the Judge, himself, shall deny the authorship, we stand prepared to prove, "on good authority," that he did write it. We say to the judiciary, let there be peace between the Bench and the Bar; let them shake hands, forgive and be forgiven, and not be recalling the bitternesses and bickerings of the past.

CLINGMAN IN THE WEST.

From numerous letters we have received from the Western part of the State, we should judge that old man Clingman is not gliding smoothly over the mountains and valleys of that region, but that he, and "Mas Tod" also, are finding that they have "a hard road to travel," in convincing the Western people, who have been so shamelessly treated in regard to their Railroads by the present Radical dynasty, that it will be to their interest to continue the same set in power another term.

We mentioned, some days since, the utter failure of Clingman to get up any interest in his speech at Caldwell Superior Court, and the lashing he got from Col. Malone.

At Watauga he met with no better success, and Tod, who followed Clingman at Lenoir, fared equally as badly, getting a most thorough lambasting from that sterling Conservative, Dr. Beall, late State Senator from the 41st district.

We understand Tod wants to run for Congress, but the party can't trust him, and the programme at present is, to throw A. H. Jones overboard, give Tod the go-by, and put Bowman on the track. Well, either of them will do to be beaten; let them trot out their man.

SOMETHING ROTTEN IN DENMARK.

It is none of our business to watch and take care of the interests of the Reds, but we like to do a charitable act, once in a while, and especially, we dislike to see any sly advantage taken even of our opponents by their pretended friends.

It is in this spirit, therefore, that we allude to the following circumstance, and caution those concerned to keep a sharp look out, or they will have some secret wire pulling trick played off on them.

It is known that on Wednesday night there was a Radical Township meeting attempted to be held at the Court House, but owing to some misunderstanding, and after much confusion, the meeting adjourned to this (Friday) evening.

Now, it is a fact, we understand, that there was a sort of secret meeting of a portion of the Republicans of the Township held in the Court House last night, to which some colored men were refused admission. We don't know anything about who got the meeting up, or who was in it, but we think it strange that the meeting should be publicly adjourned to Friday night, and then a secret meeting held with closed doors on Thursday night. There is something wrong—some trick about to be played on some body, sure.

We don't claim any credit for putting any body on their guard about this apparent trickery; we don't do it for any good will we have for the success of Radicalism, and that they all know very well; but we give the warning simply from a love of justice and fair play. We think it bad enough for the Reds to play their little underhanded tricks on the Conservatives, but when they go to playing their tricks on each other, and cheating their own brethren, we think it too bad, and we will tell on them when we catch them at it.

Therefore, we say to those concerned, keep a sharp lookout to night, if you don't you'll have another packed delegation all ready cut and dried, put upon you.

P. S. It is said the meeting was a caucus to agree concerning a division of the county offices between the white and colored aspirants, and that it was settled the whites should have three Representatives, and the colored voters one. Now, when it is remembered that, according to James Harris, there are four colored voters to one white one among the Republicans, we think the colored men very charitable toward their white brethren in regard to a division of the offices.

CARTHAGE, N. C. June 6th, 1870.

To the Editor Sentinel:

DEAR SIR:—I, with other of my countymen, as you are aware, have been assailed in the Standard under the pretended evidence of one Daniel A. Graham, a notorious thief and outlaw.

No one here who knows Graham thinks he had much to do with the matter. If he did he may have been offended with the officers who have been trying to bring him to the bar of Justice. The Sheriff has had some of the men hunting him whom he thus assails as Ku Klux. The main object of the communication is to injure or to try to injure our influence, as Worthy is now a candidate for the Sheriff's office. A majority of the Commissioners of this county have spent a large sum of the people's money trying to keep Worthy from acting as Sheriff who the people elected by a large majority. I and Worthy have been officers of our county for more than fifteen years past.

Some of the hungry Radicals wish to succeed in getting the military out, so they can get some pay, and prevent the people I have all the evidence on file in the case of Anthony Graham for the murder of Ed. Blue's family, in which the Grahams state they were Radicals, but I suppose you will get it all in the communication of Mr. McIver. Anthony since he came out of jail acquitted by Daniel's evidence has left this county for parts unknown.

I will write you again on matters here, the Radicals will resort to all low and dirty means to get out the military.

Respectfully,
A. H. McNEILL.

GRAND DISCLOSURES.—BRIBERY.—G. M. Arnold, one of the speakers at the Indignation-Bolting Meeting of Tuesday night, made the following announcement of the names of the men whom he stated were bribed, and the price given them during the Convention. The boldness of the denunciation is deserving of attention:

James Wilson, although he had pledged his vote to Schenck, was induced to cast the same for Burney, influenced by a promise of the support of the Price-Rice faction for the next mayoralty, a position which Arnold declares he has been long seeking and will be yet longer in obtaining.

Stephen Keyes was induced to change his views and vote by the promise of a nomination to the Legislature. Failing in that he was made a nominee for the position of county Commissioner.

Rufus Garris was bought for eighteen dollars and a seat on the Board of Commissioners.

Hugh Wells was purchased by the Burney faction for one barrel of flour, two pounds of coffee and three hams.

C. M. Galloway sold out for seven pounds of coffee and fifty pounds of bacon; and lastly, Chas. Foy placed himself at the low rate of twenty yards calico for his "old woman."

So much for the county.

But Arnold went still father. He charged that D. Rumley, that poor fellow, as he termed him, had in his employ, paid by the Government, four men, to wit: Price, Sampson, Galloway and Burney, at a salary of $1,500 each per annum, who never went to the Custom House except to draw their pay, and yet, Mr. Rumley certified each month to the Department at Washington that these men had fully performed the work entitling them to their compensation. This is the clique, Arnold asserts, that are all Dockery men.

Arnold also pitched into L. E. Rice "a few." We have heard men abused, but we have never heard a man so completely abused as Rice was. There wasn't a spot on him that was not branded with some hard name. But if he can stand it, we can. Wil. Journal.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention met at 2, P. M.

The Committee on resolutions, through their Chairman, J. G. Anderson, made the following report:

WHEREAS, We are about entering upon one of the most momentous political [illegible] the results of which are to determine to a great extent the destiny of the State in its peace, prosperity and the happiness of her citizens or her ruin and dishonor, and

WHEREAS, We deem it highly proper that this Convention should give some expressions to the views and principles which are understood, shall actuate the Conservative party, therefore,

Resolved, 1st. That we most heartily approve and endorse, the "address" to the people of North Carolina issued by the Conservative members of the Legislature and we adopt the said address as the platform of principles of the Conservative party in the approaching canvass, for the 7th Congressional District.

The Resolution was adopted.

The Chair having declared nominations in order, Capt. Johnston informed the Convention, that he was authorized by the Hon. J. L. Bailey whose name had been mentioned in connection with the nomination before the recess to state that while from private reasons he could not consent to have his name brought before the convention nor to accept the nominations if tendered him, he would heartily support the nominee of the convention. Mr. J. M. Gudger, proxy, for Ash, nominated Gen. R. B. Vance of Buncombe, Capt. Nat. Atkinson, nominated the Hon. Plato Durham of Cleaveland, Dr. S. L. Love nominated Col. A. F. Davidson, who in a few remarks declined the profered honor promising in some degree to repay his friends from the West for the manifestation of their regard in any services they may require of him for the nominee of this convention or on any occasion, that may require his exertion. Mr. Lane, of Buncombe presented the name of Dr. S. L. Love but at Dr. L.s request, withdrew the nomination thereupon the convention proceeded to ballot which resulted as follows:

Vance 6,100, Durham 10 406, Avery 1,347; Alleghany, Burke and Watauga not voting.

No one having received two thirds of the vote, a second ballot was had and resulted as follows: Second ballot, Vance 6,559 Durham 11,235, Alleghany, Burke and Watauga not voting.

Gen'l. Vance thanked his friends in a short address for their confidence and support, and requested his name to be withdrawn in accordance with which request Capt. Gudger withdrew the nomination—Mr. Whiteside placed the name of Col. McAffee before the Convention, when Col. McAffee declined the nomination. Sam'l. Flemming of Yancey, nominated Col. David Coleman who declined the nomination, which at his repeated request was withdrawn by Mr. Flemming. Dr. Reagan as proxy for Caldwell changed his vote for Mr Durham. The nomination of Mr. Durham was then made unanimous by acclamation. On motion of Dr. Reagan the Chair appointed Gen. R. B. Vance, Col. David Coleman and Capt. W. P. Weck, committee to inform Mr. Durham of his nomination.

On motion, the thanks of the Convention were tendered the Chairman and Secretaries. It was resolved that these proceedings be published in the North Carolina Citizen, the SENTINEL, and the Rutherford Vindicator.

GREAT INDIGNATION MEETING—GRAND RALLY OF PATRIOTISM—THE PEOPLE AROUSED!

Saturday the 4th of June, will be a day long to be remembered by the people of Beaufort, for a grand rallying of the intelligence and worth of the county; a mighty indignation meeting of her citizens. They came from every precinct, township, and district. They came, not with flying banners with strange devices, nor yet with saxhorns or bugles. They came with firm set lips and knitted brows to do their duty. They came with all the marks of care, and resistance to oppression on their determined features. They came from their growing crops, and springing agricultural interests; they came at the slogan of liberty. Their chieftains needed not the cross of fire to bring them to the council board; the cross was on their hearts, and the fire was in their homes. They came, not as old line Whigs, Democrats, or Republicans; they came as honest patriots, devoid of party lines, or party distinctions; Whig with Democrat, Republican with Conservative, white men with negroes; they rallied around the sanctuary. They came to express their indignation at long endured wrongs, and give utterance to long suppressed feelings of hatred of tyranny, and arow their determination to resist it. They came as the mighty uprising of exhausted patience, and in words that breathed, and thoughts, that burned, they proclaimed their determination to do or die. They came to oust Radical Republicanism and replace on its shattered pedestal pure Republicanism. They came, negro and white man, side by side; old line Whig and Calhoun Democrat, Conservative and Republican, and patriotism hand in hand. They came as the honest men of France came on the 18th Brumaire, to overthrow Jacobinism; and they will do it. The animus of the people cannot be mistaken; they are fully and thoroughly aroused, they have demonstrated in thunder tones and they will resound that voice next August. Early on Saturday morning the Court House had filled; at 11 o'clock the Convention was organized by the unanimous calling of R. L. Myers Esq., to the chair, and appointment of Dr. J. F. Long and L. C. Quinn Secretaries. After a strong, energizing speech from the president, exhortatory as well as explanatory, it was resolved that the old beaten committee track should be avoided, and that each delegation, as a committee of one, representing the sense of its body, should, in open convention, cast one vote for the man of its choice; thus securing an open, free, unbiassed expression of opinion, and an unwarped personal prediction. After an interval of half hour, each delegation having retired to get its animus, the Convention was called to order; each chairman made his report; each delegation in this way voted, and the result was arrived at. The strangest, and at the same time most remarkable, and significant feature of this balloting was, that nearly every delegation, though there was no caucus sing centered on the same men. There was harmony, unity and accord, no clash, and as the names were consecutively announced, they were endorsed by acclamation in the Convention; this is but a voluntary of the grand diapason of victory in August next. The following nominations were made:

For the Senate—E. J. Warren.

For Representative—Maj. Thomas Sparrow.

For Sheriff—Fenner J. Satchwell.

For Commissioners—John I. Rowland, W. B. Windley, Thos. H. Blount, Bryan T. Bonner, Wm. H. Patrick.

For Register of Deeds—Richard Granger.

For Surveyor—George C. Respass.

For Treasurer—J. J. Whitehurst.

For Coroner—[illegible] O. Whiteca.

Several stirring addresses were delivered, and a thorough organization effected for the campaign.

TOWNSHIP MEETING.

According to previous advertisement, a meeting of the Conservatives of Center Township, Chatham county, was held in Pittsboro' on Saturday, 4th day of June, inst.

The meeting was organized by calling John Manning, Jr., Esq. to the Chair, and by the appointment of Mark Fowler, Esq., as Secretary.

The Chairman briefly explained the object of the meeting, to be the election of delegates, to represent this township in the County Convention to be held in Pittsboro' on the 25th day of June, inst.

Shortly after the organization of the meeting, M. J. Waddell, Esq., rose to make a speech, and after a few moments, defined his position to be, opposition to the 15th amendment, the Constitution of the United States and to the colored man's voting or holding office, he was immediately called to order by J. G. Rencher, Esq., the point of order was sustained by the Chair, and so hearty was the support given by the meeting to the Chair, and so much opposed to the unanimous sense of the meeting, were the views of this gentleman that he retired at once.

On motion of Capt. M. A. Ramsey, it was resolved that the election of the five delegates from this township to the County Convention should be by ballot.

The meeting then proceeded to ballot and Messrs. John T. Farrell, R. G. Eubanks, John Manning, Jr., G. W. Thompson and J. B. Burns were elected.

On motion, the election of these gentlemen was made unanimous.

On motion of J. G. Rencher, Esq., the Chairman was authorized and requested to appoint the Executive Committee, and canvassers for this Township.

The Chairman appointed as the Executive Committee, Messrs. Luther Clegg, R. J. Hatch and Robt. Burns; as canvassers Messrs. J. J. Jackson, H. A. Sanders, Jr., and R. C. Cotton.

The thanks of the meeting were then tendered to the Chairman and Secretary.—A copy of the proceedings was ordered to be sent to the Raleigh SENTINEL, with a request to publish them, and the meeting then adjourned.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in many cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders all th ir really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value or policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies in this State, who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privileges of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income to such through life, or for a series of years as is agreed.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the EXCELSIOR forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

FRIDAY, JUNE 10, 1870.

Dr. Tom. H. Ramsay, of Southern Chief, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

NEW ADS.—Read the advertisement of the Lexington Chalybeate Springs. Also the one concerning the Boarding House of Mrs. H. W. Miller.

THE EXCURSION.—We hear of a good many who are making arrangements to go on the grand excursion to Baltimore, the trains of which leave Raleigh next Wednesday, 15th inst. We know the excursionists will have a grand old time, if it don't rain; as the season will be exactly suitable for a sail up the bay and a ramble through the beautiful city of monuments. This Local, at one time, had hopes of being one of the crowd, but the present prospect is, he will have to send a substitute.

THE OPERETTA.—Last evening, as we expected, we were delighted with the entertainment at Tucker Hall.

Templeton's Operetta is indeed worth attending, and we hope that our citizens will avail themselves of the opportunity offered them this evening of witnessing a performance which cannot fail in giving pleasure.

Aside from all the other attractive features, little May, the Fay, is alone well worth the price of admission. She is indeed a prodigy and has every right to be called the five year old Prima Donna.

REV. C. H. TOY, D. D., will preach in the Baptist Church to night.

D. P. HIGH, Esq., Conservative representative from Columbus, in the late Legislature, declines a re election.

W. HAWKINS, of Shelby, who was injured sometime ago by an explosion of a Kerosene lamp, has died from his injuries.

AGAIN.—Some people require "line upon line and precept upon precept," and then will not learn.

We have said, repeatedly that communications for the SENTINEL must be written only on one side of the sheet of paper, and yet, many correspondents will continue to write on both sides.

We have several communications on hand written on both sides of the paper, some of which we should like to publish, but we can't take time to re write them, and the printers can't set them up written on both sides, without more trouble and difficulty than we can undertake.

We state once again, and finally, that no one need to expect their communications to appear in print when written on both sides of the paper, nor unless they are plainly written.

PERSONAL.—We have hitherto inadvertently omitted to notice, as we intended to do, the visit to the city of our former young fellow townsman, Johnston Jones, Esq., for some time Deputy Clerk of the Supreme Court of the State, who recently removed to Baltimore, to pursue the practice of the Law.

Mr. Jones while a resident of our city, enjoyed, to a high degree, the respect and esteem of the entire community. He is a young gentleman of the most studious habits, which, added to native talent of a high order, must ensure him success in the profession of his choice. We learn that his visit here is for the purpose of winding up some professional engagements, after which he will return to his new home in Baltimore.

PICTURES! PICTURES!—Mr. Alfred Williams has had an advertisement in the SENTINEL two days, proposing to sell his stock of beautiful pictures—Chromos, Engravings and Lithographs—large, small and medium size—for New York cost.—Owing to the depression of financial matters in this State, people are not so well able to indulge in articles merely ornamental, unless they can get them cheap, no matter how desirable they may be; in consequence of which fact the sale of pictures and similar elegancies has not been as brisk as it would have been under more favorable circumstances. Owing to the dull sales, from causes alluded to, the market is rather overstocked with pictures, and hence the proposition to dispose of them at cost.

This offer affords a good opportunity to those desiring pictures, to buy them cheap, and it will, at the same time, have the effect of reducing the stocks of dealers within limits suitable to the depression of the times.

LITERARY.—The commencement exercises of the Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Va., will take place at 11 o'clock, A. M., July 4th. President, W. P. Howerton, Halifax, Va., Orator, A. Hamilton, Granville county, N. C., Valedictorian, L. N. Buck, Front Royal, Va., address to the Graduating class, by Gov. Gilbert C. Walker, of Va.

We are indebted to the Orator of the occasion, A. Hamilton, Esq., for an invitation to participate in the festivities of the ball given by the corps Cadets to the Graduating class on the evening of commencement day.

TALL OATS.—We have seen a sample of oats from the farm of Mr. H. P. Tucker, of this county, which is something to brag on. The stalk is six feet high and surmounted by a very full heavy head of grain. We think it is of the Bedford species, introduced into this State by B. P. Williamson, Esq., three years ago; and which is the best variety of oats ever grown in this State—not excepting the famous Norway.

NOTICE—BENEFICIAL TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—Persons indebted to the undersigned, will come forward and settle within 30 days from date, if not their names, amounts (and what for!) will be published for 30 days. PHIL THIEM.

HIGH PRICED GRANVILLE COUNTY YELLOW TOBACCO.—A friend informs us that the energetic firm of Hill, Bentley and Skinker, of Richmond, Va., have made the following sales for Dennis Tilley, Esq., of Knap of Reeds, Granville county, N. C.—It being his crop of yellow tobacco, raised during the year 1869.

The first sales were made October 15th, 1869, to March 30th, 1870, consisting of 11 Tierces, averaging $30 90 per cwt., 1 Tierce of lugs sold, January 21st, 1870, at $57 per cwt., May 24th, 1870, sold 3 Tierces, 1 Tierce weighing 335 lbs. at $103 per cwt., 1 Tierce weighing 343 lbs. at $105 per cwt., 1 Tierce weighing 216 lbs. at $126 per cwt.

Total amount of sales for his crop raised 1869, about $5,000. We are informed that the same firm has sold for very high prices for several parties from Granville.

This is good for Granville; better for Hill, Bently and Skinker, and best for Dennis Tilley.

WORKING INTO A JOB.—On Wednesday afternoon a number of persons, on Wilmington street, amused themselves watching a colored lad carrying a brick from one side of the street to the other, laying it down and then taking it up and carrying it back again, continually. Many jeered him for what appeared his foolish employment, but he continued his work until the close of the day.

It seems he had sought employment of Mr. Parker Overby, who, to test his sincerity, (for they are not all in earnest who pretend to be seeking employment,) set him to carrying the brick, at regular wages. His perseverance satisfied Mr. Overby, and he entered into a bargain with him for a month's work at fair wages.

THE ODD CENT MAN.—There is an eccentric stranger, rather shabbily clad and of somewhat ruddy complexion, going about the city, who has a strange fancy for borrowing odd sums of money, of small amounts. We have heard of his trying to borrow of one man, 53 cents; of another 43 cents, and, about noon he attempted to levy a contribution on us of 32 cents—which was to be repaid "this afternoon or early to morrow morning." He is what may be called "a confidence man," on a very small scale; look out for him.

H. F. Granger, Esq., is the nominee of the Conservatives in Lenoir county for the House of Representatives.

The Conservatives of Pitt county have gone to work in earnest, speeches, meetings, &c., are the order of the day.

In the 46th district, James H. Merrimon, Esq., is the Conservative nominee for the Senate and in Buncombe County, Thos. D. Johnston, Esq., is the nominee for the House.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the 3rd, Congressional District, composed of the counties of Brunswick, Columbus, New Hanover, Bladen, Sampson, Cumberland, Harnett, Robeson, Richmond, Moore, Montgomery, Anson and Stanly, it was resolved that a Convention be held at Fayetteville, on Thursday the 23rd of June inst., to nominate a Conservative Candidate for Congress.

Such of the counties as have not held their Conventions are requested to do so in time to appoint delegates to the District Convention. It is very desirable that there shall be a full representation of every county in the District.

A. A. MCKOY,
THOS. C. FULLER,
Ex. Com. 3rd District.

RALEIGH, N. C. June 8, 1870.

THE LUMBERTON CONVENTION.

The Republican District Convention assembled in Lumberton, Robeson county, yesterday morning. Up to the present writing we are without advices from the "seat of war," but learn, incidentally, that at a caucus of delegates held on Tuesday night, Sinclair, other wise the "Fighting Parson," denounced Lieut. Col. Dockery, late of the C. S. A., but now an aspirant for re-election to Congress, in the severest terms. In this tirade, the "Parson" was seconded by A. H. Galloway, who was almost equally severe in his denunciation of our amiable Representative. In turn, Dockery is said to have dissected the "Parson," applying the scalpel pretty vigorously. There were stormy times in the caucus, and it was expected to be equally stormy in the Convention.

Jones was in Lumberton on Tuesday and took occasion, we learn, to inform his competitor, Col. Dockery, that he would have nothing to do with the Convention. The delegates could vote as they saw proper. But in any event, whether he (Dockery) received the nomination or not, Jones was willing to bet that he could beat him by 5,000 votes in the District.—Wil. Star 9th inst.

THE GREAT KENTUCKY ENTERPRISE.—Since the announcement of commissioners that the drawing will positively come off without any futher delay, on the day fixed, a great impetus has been given to the sale of tickets, and everybody seems to be rushing for them, totally regardless of expense; and we should suppose from present appearances, that nine tenths of our people were each one expecting to draw the tempting prizes offered. The enterprise is surely going to be a splendid success, and from the upright manner in which it is managed, we can truly say that we hope some of our citizens will win the capital prize of $150 000,00.

B. CRAVEN.

Married,

At the residence of the brides father, by A. M. Sahs, Esq., Mr. WM. S. TERRY, to Miss MATTIE E. GATES, of Orange, N. C. on the 5th of June.

DIED,

In Franklin county, on Thursday, June 2nd, in hope of a joyful resurrection, Mr. HOWELL PERRY, aged 44 years.

His disease was consumption, from which he suffered greatly for several months before his death, but with that resignation which is inspired by a consciousness of being ready for the change. He expressed his willingness to go, in the belief that he should enter into rest; only expressing regret at leaving his wife and little daughter without his protection, but commending them to the protection of his God and theirs.

Mr. PERRY, was well known in Raleigh, having resided here most of his life up to four years ago, when he removed to Newbern. He had the respect and esteem of all who knew him. Newbern papers please copy.

At Oak Grove, Johnston County on the 5th of June, little MAMIE only child of Henry L. and Annie M. Watson, aged 18 months.

She drooped and faded, the dear flower
So tender and caressed;
We laid her from our arms away,
In loneliness to rest,
But, mother, father weep no more,
She is released from pain,
She folds her little hands in peace,
And waketh not again.
Translated from the fields of earth,
White innocent and fair,
Into the garden of our Lord
To bloom in beauty there.

S.

In Edenton, N. C., on the 5th inst., LIZZIE BENBURY, infant daughter of Thomas C. and Sallie P. Badham, aged 7 months and 7 days.

Another little soul has gone
To join the angel throng,
She left us in the early morn,
Ere birds commenced their song.
She died within her mother's arms,
Pressed closely to her heart;
Oh God! forgive those bitter tears,
Tis hard, too hard to part.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—Butler in his report from the Judiciary Committee on the indebtedness of certain Southern Railroads says, most of them, especially those which made moderate purchases, have settled. Several of the Roads most largely indebted have set up counter claims which are in litigation. Suits are pending against the following Roads for the following amounts: East Tennessee and Virginia R. R., $388,870; East Tennessee and Georgia R. R. $665,331; Nashville and Chattanooga R. R. $310,839; Nashville and Northwestern R. R., $47,134. The Roads, the report says, came before the Committee, and while protesting against legislation designed to affect the proceedings in Courts, expressed a desire for an equitable statement without litigation, and ask that the Secretary of War, or some other competent tribunal, be authorized to compromise the differences.

The Committee consents to this, and proposes to abandon the suits.

A bill was reported in accordance with recommendation.

Revenue $716,000.

Assistant Attorney General Field has resigned. Delano will be absent until Saturday.

HOUSE.—A bill was reported from the Judiciary Committee establishing an uniform system of naturalization, with a proviso postponing the exercise of the rights of naturalization for six months after the judgment of naturalization.

The bill was denounced by Eldridge as the very embodiment of partisan malignancy, religious bigotry and intolerance.

Sargeant of California, opposed the bill because it would serve for no useful purpose.

The bill was further opposed by Republicans as cumbersome and calculated to embarrass naturalization.

After further discussion the bill was laid on the table, yeas 103, nays 62.

SENATE.—Notice was given of a bill to allow all Indian nations and tribes having rights under existing laws and treaties, to sue in United states Courts with a right to go to the Supreme Court.

Apportionment bill was considered and the Senate Committee amendment to make the number of repre entatives thirty, was adopted, and the bill was then laid over.

The bill to abolish the franking privilege was discussed.

Flanegan opposed it, because it would deprive the Republican party of a great lever or which they now had command, would use the franking privilege to disseminate political light among the people of Texas. In reply to former remarks of his colleague, Hamilton, he maintained that the people were not the set of cut-throats they were represented by Hamilton to be. He was as good a Republican as any man dared to be, but did not feel called on to prove the fact by jumping up and proposing to cut each's throats.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, June 9.—The alarm among farmers over the continued dry weather amounts to a panic.

Telegraphic communication with Bombay is complete.

Disraeli is about retiring from politics; he will be raised to the peerage.

MADRID, June 9.—The question of a future monarch occupies the Cortes yesterday. A motion was made that a King be elected by a direct vote of the people. After a debate the motion was rejected. A proposition requiring the candidate to receive a majority equal to one half of the whole number of deputies, carried by a vote of 126 to 124. This is regarded as having utterly destroyed the chances of the Duke of Montpensier, as well as of all other candidates who have thus far been named. None of these will be able to get 170 votes, the number required by the passage of this resolution. There is much excitement among all classes of people.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 9.—The great fire has resulted in the loss of three hundred lives, the destruction of seven thousand buildings and twenty-five millions of dollars worth of property.

The English newspaper writers lose heavily. The American Church of the Immaculate Conception was on fire several times and was considerably damaged, but the gobelin tapestry, gift of the Empress Eugenie, with which the Church was decorated, was saved unharmed.

FLORENCE, June 9.—The insurrec on at Lucca is supposed to be trifling. Bands increased nearly a million.

BOMBAY, June 9.—The cholera is ravaging different parts of India and is particularly severe at Madir.

Friday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Maj. Perry Fuller has given bond before Judge Wylie, of this city, in $50 000 to answer certain Custom House charges against him at New Orleans. Perry's bondsmen are Senators Ross of Kansas, and McDonald of Arkansas. Perry was represented before Judge Wylie by Congressman Sheldon of Louisiana.

HOUSE.—Three hundred Philadelphia druggist and dealers in spirits, petition for taxation at wills on the capacity basis.

The bill to regulate credits for good behavior on the part of convicts passed.

The bill creating St. Joseph, a port of delivery, passed.

The correspondent of the New York Evening Post was ordered to the bar of the House for alleged false dispatches, regarding the implication of certain members in the Cuban corruption matter.

A resolution passed ordering the arrest of the parties who assaulted Congressman Porter, for violation of Porter's privileges. They will be arrested whenever found and brought before the bar of the House.

SENATE.—Unimportant.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (cash assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premiums.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at SIX per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

WE BEG TO ANNOUNCE that we have been appointed Sole Agents for the sale of the above Patent Tie in Virginia and North Carolina.

The satisfaction it gave last season wherever used, warrants us in recommending it as the best tie yet introduced. It combines the advantages of great strength, great simplicity and ease in manipulation, besides the difficulty of taking up the slack of the band in the operation of balling, is entirely obviated.

We shall have our supply direct from the manufacturer in England, for delivery in July or August, and at lowest market rates.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and colorless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS

Medal Awarded by the Paris Exposition, 1867.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work.

Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement, never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch, or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparatively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITSOWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs Tompkins' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

Instructions in the use of the machine will be given to all purchasers gratis.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

THIS FAVORITE AND CELEBRATED Watering Place is now in complete order for the reception of guests. Important improvements have been added to the buildings since the establishment passed into the hands of the present proprietor, and it is his purpose to keep it in a style not surpassed anywhere in Virginia. The waters of these special springs either cure or greatly relieve most cases of Scrofula, Incipient Consumption, Chronic Bronchitis, Chronic Laryngitis, Chronic Pneumonia, Chronic Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Dysentery. They are also a great value in those affections which are peculiar to the female constitution, and as an appetizer, a tonic and general restorative, they are, perhaps, unrivalled amongst mineral waters. The proprietor will have provided for the lawns and ballroom a first-class band of music, and in general all the sources of amusement and recreation usually found at our first summer resorts will be at the command of the guests at "ROCKBRIDGE ALUM." The place is within eleven to thirteen hours of Richmond, Washington, Baltimore, &c., by rail, all in daylight. Passengers leave the cars of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad at Goshen Depot, and new and elegant stage coaches, passing rapidly over a smooth and level road of only eight miles, set down the visitors at the Springs in tea.

SPARKLING

CATAWBA SPRINGS,

CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Wednesday, the 1st day of June.

Being situated in the Northwestern part of the State, in a section remarkable for its delightful climate, beauty and healthiness, these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable Watering Places to be found.

The Mineral Waters of these Springs

Are the White and Blue Sulphur, and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of those waters, and are sovereign remedies for all Female diseases, diseases of long standing, diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach, kidneys, Pulmonary diseases, Eruptions of the skin, Scrofula, Weakness, Debility, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, &c., &c.

From the numerous wonderful cures that have come immediately under my own observation within the last four years (by the use of these waters) I am satisfied that this is the place for all whose condition can be improved by the salubrious character of any water that flows from the earth, and the medicinal qualities of the same are not excelled.

Our rooms, in both cottages and other buildings, are large and pleasant; cottages containing from two to six rooms each, suitable for large or small families. Many rooms having been already applied for arrangements will be made to accommodate a large number of visitors, and it is to be hoped that our Southern people will patronize the Sparkling Catawba, which ought to be the pride of North Carolina, as well as the South, for no watering place can offer greater inducements for either health or pleasure.

The Bar will be supplied with choice liquors and Segars. Good Ten Pin Alleys, Billiard Tables, one of which will be of the most approved style.

GOOD BATH HOUSES,

For Pool, Plunge or Shower Baths, hot or cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC,

Six or more performers, has been engaged for the season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have good attention.

The Sparkling Catawba this season will be under the management of Mr. JOHN L. BURANE, (who for the last three years has been manager at the Healing Springs in Virginia)—assisted by Mrs. M. A. WRENN, and visitors may rely upon finding a good table.

The cars, on the Western and Morganton Railroad, leave Salisbury every morning, Sundays excepted, for Rickory station, the Springs Depot, where hacks with good drivers will be ready to take passengers to the Springs, a distance of six miles, over a beautiful, well shaded road.

A GOOD LAUNDRY connected with the Springs and washing done at reasonable rates.

A PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
RALEIGH June 6, 1870.

WHEREAS, In January or February, 1869, the house of DANIEL BLUE, colored, in the county of Moore was entered at night by a band of disguised men, known as the Ku Klux Klan, and the wife of the said Blue was pregnant, and five of the children were murdered, and the house with the bodies of the murdered persons aforesaid was burned:

And WHEREAS, on the 26th of February, 1870, WYATT OUTLAW, colored, a citizen of Alamance, was taken from his house in the town of Graham by a band of disguised persons known as the Ku Klu Klan, and hanged by the neck until he was dead, on a tree near the Court House:

And WHEREAS, on Saturday the 21st day of May, 1870, JOHN W. STEPHENS, white, State Senator from the county of Caswell, was murdered in open day-light in the Court House in the village of Yanceyville, by persons unknown, supposed to belong to the Ku Klux Klan aforesaid:

And WHEREAS on the 13th of May, 1870, ROBIN JACOBS, colored, living near Leasburg, Caswell county, was murdered at night by a band of the Ku Klux Klan aforesaid:

And WHEREAS from the 2nd of April, 1870, to the 15th of May, 1870, not less than twenty-one persons, white and colored, in the aforesaid county of Caswell, were cruelly whipped and scourged by a band or bands of the aforesaid Ku Klux Klan:

And WHEREAS, during the week ending the 14th of May, 1870, a colored man in the county of Lincoln was taken from his bed at night and tied to a tree by a band of disguised persons known as the Ku Klux Klan, while fifteen of these demons in succession committed a rape on his wife:

And WHEREAS, about the same time, in said county, a band of these men disguised, known as the Ku Klux Klan, met a colored woman in the dusk of the evening and committed a rape on her body, and afterwards stuck their knives in various parts of her body:

And WHEREAS, about the same time a band of men disguised, known as the Ku Klux Klan, in said county, shot a colored man on the public highway, and then told him they had shot him through mistake for another colored man, but laid him on a pile of fence rails and told him to cry for help:

And WHEREAS, recently, a colored man named PURYEAR, of the county of Alamance supposed to be half-witted, having followed two of the disguised murderers of Wyatt Outlaw to their homes, and having spoken of the fact publicly, suddenly disappeared, and was found drowned in a mill pond with a twenty pound rock to his feet:

And WHEREAS, T. M. SHOFFNER, one of the Senators in the General Assembly of this State, from the counties of Alamance and Guilford, has been compelled to sacrifice his property, and, to save his life, to make his escape from said county on account of his opposition to the Ku Klux Klan aforesaid, and his devotion to the government of the United States:

And WHEREAS on the 25th of May, 1870, a most atrocious murder was committed by three disguised men on NEILL MCLEOD and DANIEL MCLEOD, white, of the county of Cumberland, and three others of the family were wounded by these assassins:

And WHEREAS, in divers other localities peaceable citizens have been insulted in their houses, put in fear for their lives, whipped, scourged, maltreated, mutilated and murdered by persons disguised, and known as the Ku Klux Klan; And WHEREAS, retaliation has commenced by the burning of barns, stables, and mills: And WHEREAS, all these evils are to be traced to the Ku Klux Klan aforesaid, though no apology can be offered for the retaliation referred to, for it is equally to be deplored and reprobated as a wicked violation of the law and upon due information laid before me, (which information has not been furnished,) that barns or stables, or mills, or dwelling houses, have been burned by incendiaries, mentioning the localities and the persons to whom the said barns, or stables, or mills or dwelling houses belonged, rewards will also be offered for the arrest and conviction of the incendiaries aforesaid.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this my proclamation, offering a reward of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS for the arrest of each of the murderers of the wife and children of Daniel Blue, of each of the murderers of Wyatt Outlaw, of each of the murderers of John W. Stephens, of each of the murderers of Robin Jacobs, of each of the persons who committed rape on the bodies of the colored woman referred to, of each of the persons who murdered Puryear, and of each of the persons who murdered Neill McLeod and Daniel McLeod, and robbed the family of the said Neill McLeod, together with such evidence as will lead to the conviction of the persons thus arrested; those who planned, advised or counselled the commission of the act; those who participated in the act or acts; or those who conspired to conceal the bodies of the murdered, or aided in the concealment and escape of the felons:

And I enjoin upon all officers, civil and military, to aid in bringing these and all other offenders to justice; and especially to discountenance, discourage, and repress all organizations of men who ride or walk at night in disguise, with arms in their hands. It is a misdemeanor thus to go disguised, and it is felony if these disguised persons molest or injure peaceable citizens in their persons or property.

Done at our city of Raleigh, this 6th day [L. s.] of June A. D. 1870, and in the 94th year of our Independence.

W. W. HOLDEN, Governor.
